Integer

Integer is the head used for integers.

Integer can be used to stand for an integer in a pattern. Integers can be of any length. You can enter an integer in base b using `b^n digits`. The base must be less than 36. The letters are used in sequence to stand for digits 10 through 35.

See page 325. See also: `BaseForm`